

Sweet Promise Press Review Team Requirements

1. Provide your real name and email. This is to confirm that we are sending books to a real person.
 - a. Sweet Promise Press strives to respect the privacy of both authors and readers, and never shares or trades personal information.
2. Be willing to receive free books via BookFunnel. We'll provide instructions for ARC Readers who aren't sure how.
3. Commit to leaving a review for the book within seven (7) days of the book's release date. You should leave a review on at least one of the following sites: Amazon, Barnes and Noble, Goodreads, Kobo, or iBooks.
 - a. While you will not be removed from the Sweet Promise Press ARC Readers team for leaving a low review, failing to review could result in your being discharged from the team.
 - b. The law requires that you disclose that you received a free ARC of the book and are voluntarily writing your honest review of it. If you aren't sure what to say, you can copy and paste this line: I received a free advanced copy of this book and am voluntarily providing my honest review.
 - c. As a reminder, 5 stars is the highest rating and is an indication that you enjoyed the book, while 1 star is the lowest rating and implies you did not enjoy the book.
 - d. If you miss two reviews in a row, you may be removed from the group.
 - e. If you miss reviewing three out of five ARC books regardless of sequence, you may be removed from the group.
4. Email your review link(s) to [EMAIL ADDRESS] so we can verify your participation. The rating and content of your review have no bearing on your status as a Sweet Promise Press ARC Reader, as long as your review is honest.
